

Dreams Can Come True

Dreams can come true.

Not True.

Had a glum day.

A day when you were taken away.

For help, they say.

You arrived at placement 1 not really understanding anything.

Or anyone.

Dreams can come true.

Still, not true so you think.

All the way through and still not much of a clue.

I'm now too old for placement 1.

Still making the same mistakes.

Risk assessments too high.

It's time for me to fly.

Dreams can come true.

Very much not true you believe.

You live in your fantasy world.

Marrying Taylor Swift is top of your agenda.

I wish, I wish, I wish.

Dreams can come true.

I'm now at placement 2.

First of all timid and shy.

I still think my assessment is miles too high.

I need to work hard, I tell myself.

So my dreams can become reality.

As I grow
With all the help and support from others
A clear path is appearing...
Placement 2 is amazing.
I can have a future, I can have dreams.
If I work hard.
Need to get my family back on my side.
As well as my life.

Dreams can come true
It's true.
You work towards them.
You believe in them.
One day you will have them.

I dream of a safe, secure job.
I dream of somewhere to call home.
I dream of safety.
I dream of a happy, safe relationship.
I dream of seeing my family again.

As you think of these dreams
A bright rainbow appears
Like a smile through all your tears
Giving you a fuzzy feeling...
A feeling only dreams are made of.
